Adult Education Grant Review

John Phillips, GMRC WorkSource Georgia Mountains Director explained that The Technical College System of Georgia, Office of Adult Education accepted applications for funding under the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA). Each applicant was required to demonstrate alignment between its Adult Education program and the Local Workforce Development System. WorkSource Georgia Mountains received three applications; one from North Georgia Technical College for the General Adult Education Grant, and two applications from Lanier Technical College one for the General Education Grant and one for the Integrated English Literacy and Civics Education Grant. The grant applications had been reviewed by four WorkSource Georgia Mountains staff. The review indicated the applications met the Grant requirements. Deborah Mack made a motion to approve the Adult Education Grant applications. Andrea Gibby seconded and motion passed unanimously.

John Phillips informed the Workforce Development Executive Board that WorkSource was currently working on the Request for Proposal (RFP) for the One-Stop Operator and hoped to have it completed by next week.
